DOMAINE GIRAUD

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Les Grenaches de Pierre 2016

Ce pur grenache sur sables offre un nez sur l'anis étoilé, très fin et complexe. On retrouve le tempérament mûr des rouges produits par ce domaine avec, ici, une maturité canalisée par la finesse des sables, d'où son toucher de bouche gracieux et son fruit net. 55 €

DOMAINE GIRAUD

Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2016

95 | $55 | France

Siblings Marie and François Giraud made two incredible single-vineyard bottlings in 2016, but their entry-level Châteauneuf-du-Pape also earned a classic score and sells for less than half the price. The Giraud family has lived in the region for generations, but they only began growing grapes in 1974 and bottling their own wine in 1998. They have farmed organically since 2008, a practice that has started to pay dividends. The 2016 is a blend of 80 percent Grenache with 15 percent Syrah and 5 percent Mourvèdre. Unlike more traditional Châteauneufs, all the grapes are destemmed, producing a silky-textured wine. The Grenache and Mourvèdre are aged in cement vats, while the Syrah ages in oak barrels before blending. 2,500 cases made.

Wine Spectator

2018 TOP 100

Wine Spectator editors reviewed more than 15,000 newly released wines in 2018. From this pool, we chose the Top 100. These are the year's most noteworthy wines, based on four criteria: high score, large production, value pricing and an X-factor we call excitement. We recommend these wines as outstanding representatives of their types.

ABOUT THE 100-POINT SCALE
Ratings reflect how highly our tasters regard each wine relative to other wines. The rating summarizes a wine's overall quality; to determine if the wine's style and character appeal to you, check its complete tasting note in the Buying Guide or at www.winespectator.com.

95-100 Classic: a great wine
90-94 Outstanding: a wine of superior character and style
85-89 Very good: a wine with special qualities
80-84 Good: a solid, well-made wine
75-79 Mediocre: a drinkable wine that may have minor flaws
50-74 Not recommended
